ALLIES GAIN ON SOMME

Both French and British Report Fresh Progress on the Western Front. Bad Weather Interferes With Austro-Italian Operations.

On the Transylvania front the Rus slans and Reumanians apparently are operating successfully against the Bukowina, Transylvania and Rouma-Tentonic allies near the junction of nia, and to the south near Campulung, and in the Jiul valley have gained successes over them. In the fighting in the Jini valley the Roumanians are declared by Rucharest to have captured two Ho witzer batteries, which later wer turned against the Austro-Germans According to Perlin, the Tentons have made additional gains south of Kronstadt and in the direction of Campu-

The Roomanians and Russians in Defirming are still in retreat before the Germans, Bullevrians and Turkish troops and are now endeavoring to make their way across the Danube at various points on pontoon bridges, according to the Sofia war office. The Macodonia theater is still the Following up their advantage of Saturday, the British captured an other German trench Sunday north east of Les Boenfs, in the Somme reglon, while the French made fresh advances near Sality-Salitiset and Binches, Hurry artillery netivity against the Dritish positions is being earried out by the Germans in the Les Boeul's scelor and elsewhere.

Again, according to Berlin, another heavy Russian officialto against the German lines along the Stellhod rive in Verhynia has been per down by the German curvain of fire. Petrograd reports successful recommissances by the Russians along the River Stavok, a tributary of the Stokhod.

Except for homburdments the had weather on the Austro-Italian front is keeping down the operations.

KAISER BILL SERENE.

German Emperor in Good Health, Asserts Correspondent. William Bayard Hale, a corre-

pondent, writing from Berlin, says; "For the benefit of American readers, if any are deluded by stories that the kniser is a broken man, it may be worth while to say that such reports are ofter nonsense.

"The emperor is in splendld health and spirits, as I am able to testify from personal knowledge. His hair is a shade grayer than it was a couple of years ago, but his mustache still is untouched by frest.

"The few cheerful wrinkles around his rapidly glancing eyes are no deeper. His step is clastic, every movement is alert and resilient, and his confidence is serene and indom-

Corinthian Brass.

That which was known as Corinthian brass is said to have been a mixture of gold, silver and brass. There is a legend to the effect that when Mummlus destroyed the city of Corinth by fire the conflagration melted all metals, which ran down the streets, and the three mentioned above ran together and formed the alloy named.

PLANS GREAT CAMPAIGN. Italy Expects to Be German Rule
